ETHICAL POLICY

At Asquith & Fox® we endeavour to create desirable and high quality clothing while reducing our impact on the planet. Our vision is lead by strong working partnerships and our desire to use materials which consider sustainability and ethical labour.

Our team works closely with our suppliers to monitor and assess workplace standards. We ensure the factories we work with are audited to a credible standard such as BSCI, SMETA or WRAP. We strive for continuous improvements regarding our ethical and social compliance and we make it our priority to work towards the International Labour Organization's principles whose mandate is to promote social justice and internationally recognised human and labour rights.

We are passionate about lowering our impact on the environment at the very beginning of our supply chain, too. By using organic cotton in our Organic collection, with a minimum of 70% organic cotton fibres in our garments, we can support healthy soils by avoiding harsh chemicals such as pesticides, as well as a reduced water footprint.
